GLOBAL OIL & GAS HEALTH & SAFETY SUMMIT

RAISING HEALTH AND SAFETY STANDARDS GLOBALLY FOR 2011 AND BEYOND

Safety issues within the oil and gas industry are under the limelight following several recent accidents. As a result, oil and gas companies have to ensure that adequate safety measures are reassessed and implemented accordingly.

The Global Oil & Gas Health & Safety Summit will tackle the ultimate question: why are we not learning from our mistakes?

It is of utmost importance to capture risk factors and relationships to be able to provide guidance for the development of effective emergency procedures.

This summit will bring together over 150 senior HSE executives from across the globe, giving you the opportunity to engage with decision makers from IOCs, NOCs, oil field service providers and contractors who are active in increasing health and safety performance.

Use this summit as a business platform to discuss the current challenges you are facing as an oil and gas executive. Enable the industry to make a step forward by discovering innovative and out of the box programmes which make individuals think.

HEALTH & SAFETY AWARDS 2010

During a drinks reception at the end of the first day, The Energy Exchange will present the inaugural Health & Safety awards which recognise outstanding achievement and vision in the HSE sector.

Outstanding Health and Safety Vision Award: Presented to an organisation that has achieved astonishing health and safety milestones, this award will recognise a company that has improved its bottom line through the implementation of exceptional health and safety processes.

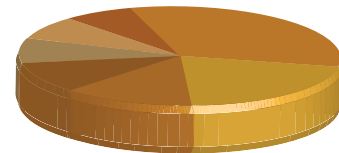

Health and Safety Achievement Award: This award will identify an individual who has successfully driven the implementation of health and safety procedures, taking ownership of their personal safety as well as their team's, thus contributing to overall health and safety excellence.

Do you know a winner? To nominate a company or an individual who deserves recognition for their outstanding work in health and safety you can email us briefly stating why they are a winner.
